

Goal of Instruction: To provide a bonding experience for parents and children through geocaching.

1. Encourage each other during activities	2. Manually enter coordinates in GPS	3. Use GPS to locate item at coordinates	4. Locate hidden geocaches	5. Avoid potential dangers	6. Use geocaching site to extend activity
1.1 Take turns operating GPS unit.	2.1 Power up GPS and acquire satellite lock.	3.1 Power up GPS and acquire satellite lock.	4.1 Use GPS to get to hide location.	5.1 Read signs at park entrances about animals and hazards.	6.1 Set up free or paid account on geocaching.com
1.2 Allow all group members to find geocaches.	2.2 Use buttons to navigate interface.	3.2 Use buttons to navigate interface.	4.2 When distance is at or close to zero, begin using your five senses.	5.2 Apply and re-apply sunscreen often.	6.2 Click "hide & seek a cache" to go to pages for caches you found.
1.3 Decide as a group on each next course of action.	2.3 Go to "Mark" in Main Menu page.	3.3 Go to "Waypoints" in Find page.	4.3 Refer to hints and descriptions of size and container type.	5.3 Drink plenty of water.	6.3 Log finds for geocaches you found.
1.4 Assign each group member important jobs regarding supplies.	2.4 Click "Mark" icon.	3.4 Click on the name of geocache you want to find, click "GoTo."	4.4 Move things, replacing them, but do not dig.	5.4 Eat snacks for energy, but do not litter.	6.4 Click "trackable items" to "pick up" TBs or geocoins you have.
	2.5 Change Waypoint name and move to coordinates section.	3.5 Move in direction arrow points, as long as distance decreases.	4.5 When you find it, open container and sign log.	5.5 Wear clothes in layers, sturdy shoes, and a hat.	6.5 Click "hide & seek a cache" to learn about geocaches near you.
	2.6 Change coordinates to those given by instructor.	3.6 When distance is at or close to zero, begin using your five senses.	4.6 Trade for items if desired, observing rules of geocaching.	5.6 Identify and avoid poison oak and hemlock.	6.6 Explore other website resources.
	2.7 Repeat as needed for all coordinates.		4.7 Take trackable items if you plan to move them along.	5.7 Use a stick or pole to poke in possible snake hiding places.	6.7 Research GPS units, seek other local geocachers online.
			4.8 Put everything back and re-hide geocache as you found it.	5.8 Inspect yourself for ticks, other insects, or bites at the end.	